Special Classes

These are Beorc classes with certain properties that make them stand out from other classes, and are thus considered Special Classes. Like Non-Beorc, Special Classes do not promote normally, instead simply gaining +1 MOV and their skill at Level 21. Unlike Laguz or Manaketes who have an extra-special ability to help them (Shifting, gradually empowering weapons, high variety in the case of Manaketes and Taguel, etc.) Special classes do not, and thus gain +2 to all stats except MOV, LoS and WT when 'promoting' aswell, for both Tier 2 and Tier 3.

Phantoms give EXP from combat and kills to their summoner (even when killed), and level up alongside them, with their growth rates determined by them at character creation. They have 200 Growth Rate points that can be assigned, and points cannot be put into HP, DEF or RES. At would-be promotion level they gain +2 CON and +1 MOV. Phantoms do not start with a generic skill. Phantoms are summoned with random weapons depending on their level (though it will always be of the type they are proficient in), and their weapons are always usuable by them and cannot be traded off to other units or sold. Any other items they have will be sent to convoy upon death. Their potential weapons are as follows:

Basic = Sword/Axe/Lance
Strong = Blade/Poleax/Greatlance
1-2 Range T1 = Wind Edge, Javelin, Hand Axe
1-2 Range T2 = Storm Sword, Short Spear, Short Axe
1-2 Range T3 = Tempest Blade, Spear, Tomahawk

Lv1-5: Bronze, Glass, Devil, Slim, Iron (Basic)
Lv6-10: Devil, Glass, Iron (Basic, Kukri, Strong), 1-2 Range T1, Steel (Basic)
Lv11-15: Devil, Glass, Iron (Kukri, Strong), 1-2 Range T1, T2, Steel (Basic, Kukri, Strong), Killer, Quick
Lv16-20: Devil, Glass, Steel (Kukri, Strong), 1-2 Range T2, Silver (Basic), Killer, Quick
Lv21+: Devil, Glass, Silver (Basic, Kukri, Strong), 1-2 Range T3, Killer, Reaver, Brave
Lv41+: Devil, Glass, Silver, (Basic, Kukri, Strong), 1-2 Range T3, Killer, Brave, Slayer, Meister

Villager		Common folk now fighting for certain purpose, learning by example.

DEF	4 [2103]	LUK	6 [2104]	WT	0

Proficiencies:	Any 1 Weapon
Special Qualities:	None
Starting Skills:	Aptitude
Class Skill:	Depends on Promotion.
Occult Skill:	Depends on Promotion.
Mastery Skill:	Depends on Promotion.

Villlagers, unlike other Special Classes, can technically promote. Upon reaching the proper level, or using a Promotional item, Villagers may choose any one promotion of another non-Special beorc class and adopt it's characteristics, and may choose a different one at Tier 3 aswell. Villagers promoting to another class will obtain it's promotion gains for the main 8 stats, CON and LoS, and will obtain it's proficiencies and promotion skill, and using an Occult Scroll will grant their Occult Skill. Promoting will NOT grant more than +1 MOV, the Armored, Flying or Mounted Special Qualities, or change their caps. This means a Villager cannot obtain a mount or armor, and also prevents situations such as promoting to General then Archsage, creating an Armored Archsage, or a Mounted Marksman.

Trainee Classes

Trainees are Beorc that stand a level below Tier 1 classes such as Archer or Soldier. They are weaker at base than their counterparts, but in the long run can stand taller than them. Trainees suffer from 40% reduced total Growth rates (205 Growth points), have E rank weapons, and do not start with a Generic Skill, but have nine more levels to grow than Tier 1 units, gain more stats upon promoting to a Tier 1, and have temporarily increased EXP gain from their Greenhorn skill. In addition, trainees are likely to be able to wield more weapon types than units starting at Tier 1. When a Trainee reaches level 10 and levels up one more time, they will promote to a Tier 1 class from one of their choices, and gain 5% in all growth rates like a standard promotion, bringing them back up to 245 Growth points, and gain a Generic Skill which replaces Greenhorn. For the purposes of EXP calculation, Trainees are considered, at level 1, equal to a Tier 1 unit who is also level 1.
